MARATHON FOR CHICAGO. Dorando Runs Corey There Tomorrow

Night. Dorando Pietri, the Italian Marathon runner, is in Chicago, preparing for his race with sibrt Corey, the Chicago long distance runner, which takes place n that city Friday night. This man has run many races since he came to this country and has won but two of em, one against Johnny Hayes, who neat him in London, and the second against Percy Smallwood in St. Louis, in which Smallwood was in no condion to race and quit at the twelfth

Dorando was to have raced in Kansus City against five runners from the fort at Leavenworth, but in view of his coming meeting with Corey, the native of Sunny Haly deemed it wise to save his strength for the struggle with the Frenchman. Dorando's showing in the St. Louis Marathon surprised his followers, who are planning to wager heavily on their favorite. Dorando shows no bad effects of his recent numerous races, and says he will be in fine condition to put up the race of his life.

Jacob Stein of New London, commonly known at Cap Stein, challenges anyone in New London county to play the race of his life.

Corey has worked harder for the coming match with Dorando than ever before. Each Saturday he jogs through the full Marathon distance, and on alternate days takes long runs. His style of practicing is rather different from that pursued by most runners, the runs at top speed for two hours at a time, then takes a short reg and repeats the performance two or three times.

This narrowing of the price fluctuations is the certain index of the indifference of all the professional board room element which gains its subsistence in the daily fluctuations of prices. One re-daily fluctuations of prices. One re-pressive factor at work in the whole financial world is the waiting for the outcome of the Russian loan which is to be issued in Paris on Friday. In the New York mariest there are dewelopments also which have been long awaited and which the speculative element would like to see more light upon before proceeding further. Today the New York Central directors adjourned once more with the autouncement that only routine matters had been considered. This parts of again the sur-
